OLD BUSINESS: Cathy Fuller reported the Piru campout was a big success. Everyone really out did themselves with the wonderful Thanksgiving dinner and all the meals. There were 19 rigs with 10 extra people who came on Saturday. She thanked Bill and Lyn Owen for hosting the “turkey shoot”, Bill, Ed, Tom and Ron for all their cooking skills, the horse shoe hosts Ed and Sally, Debbie, Dorothy and Sally for selling the 50/50 tickets and her co hosts, Moe and Judy Nadeau for all their help. The winners of the raffle were Dee Glynn and Lyn Owens. Judy Nadeau was the secret sheriff collecting $38.00 in “fines”.

Jo Schuler reported the Kenny Grove campout was a lot of fun and everyone had a great time. Rona, the camp host of the campground will be retiring soon and it is unknown if we will have the opportunity to camp there again. A fare well dinner was given in her honor along with a money necklace and memory album. Rona sent Jo a thank you card for our camping club saying “you guys are awesome” and to keep having fun.

Richard Bachman reported on the wonderful luncheon put on by our lodge for the vets. Elks do care and share.

Lyn Owen thanked Cathy Fuller for her many years of hosting our thanksgiving dinner and Christmas party on behalf of us all.
