

Flying Flags – May 2017

The Happy Wanderers headed north up the California coast for the May campout at Flying Flags Resort in Buellton. Under the leadership of the Hilmers and Slattery's fourteen rigs attended the campout with nine arriving on Thursday and five more turning out on Friday. With the success of several previous campouts, there is a good possibility that this may become one of the club's major annual events. It's a pleasant drive up the coast and the Resort has plenty of amenities and treats us very good while we are there.

After setting up on Thursday, many of those who arrived early went across the street to the Mexican Restaurant for lunch and a few cocktails.

Friday morning some early risers headed out for a 8 am tee time at a near by golf course. They had a nice cool morning to play golf. It was a great day to relax play some cornhole and socialize. Bill and Kari Sears cooked hotdogs for a afternoon snack. The remaining five rigs arrived safely during the day. Friday evening in the club house we enjoyed a meal of various types of hors d'oeuvres. After dinner some campers headed back out to play corn hole and relax by the camp fire.

Saturday morning Bloody Mary's and Mimosa were served by Moe Nadeau. There were fresh pastries delivered from Olsen's Danish Village Bakery in Solvang. Saturday's breakfast was another successful meal of Belgian Waffles, fresh fruit, eggs, some ventured out to explore Solvang a puzzle, play darts and board games. dinner the resort supplied two Santa Ed Slattery filled them with mesquite cook 20lbs of Tri-Tip and chicken. The for another fantastic dinner of Tri-Tip baked beans, dinner rolls and desserts. Steiger was revealed and fines were guest campers and family members were introduced and thanked for joining us. Judy Steiger and Valeta Russell sold tickets for the 50/50 drawing and the winner was Julie Francis. After dinner it was time to relax and enjoy the campfire.

Sunday morning most of the campers packed up their RV's in the rain and headed home. Four campers stayed one more night. We relaxed enjoyed a little rain and some sunshine. For dinner we gathered our leftovers and enjoyed a meal together.

Bugle Correspondent, Joe Beautz

bacon and sausage. After breakfast while others used the clubhouse to do In preparation for Saturday night's Maria style barbecues. Bill Sears and briquettes and then fired them up to campers gathered in the clubhouse and chicken, baked potatoes, salad, After dinner the secret sheriff Judy assessed to all guilty parties. All the